

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Leif Eriksson - Was Leif Eriksson the first European to discover North America? Search different Internet sites to gather information to support this claim.	5
Christopher Columbus - What privileges were to be granted to Columbus by the court of Spain should he be successful?	10
The Lost Colony of Roanoke - What happened to the colonists on Roanoke Island?	14
The Colony at Jamestown - What was life like in the colony? What events took place to finally allow the colony to be successful?	19
Pocahontas and John Smith - Is this story fact or fiction? Research and investigate the story to find out for yourself!	24
The Mayflower Compact - How did this document protect the rights of the colonists? How is it significant in terms of our present form of government?	29
Life in the Colonies - What was life like for people living in a New England or Southern colony? How were their lives the same? How were they different?	33
Colonial Children - How did children in colonial times live their lives? In what ways were their lives different from the way in which children live their lives today?	38
The Stamp Act - How did this act strengthen opposition to Great Britain in the days before the Revolutionary War?	43
The Boston Massacre - Violence broke out in Boston. How did the colonists react to this, and what were the results?	48
The Boston Tea Party - What were the events leading up to and following the Boston Tea Party?	53

Battles of the American Revolution –	58
What important battles occurred during the American Revolution? What strategies were used? What were their outcomes?
Famous People of the American Revolution -	63
What role did certain people play in the American Revolution? What contributions, if any, were they responsible for, and how did their actions dictate events in our history?
The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution -	68
Why were these documents so important? What led to the drafting of these documents, and how do they influence life as we know it today?
About the Author	73